CTAR

Culture Statement

The Charleston Trident Association of Realtors® (CTAR) is committed to a membership culture where diversity, equity and inclusion are at the core of the work we do.

Mutual respect among members is crucial to nurturing an environment where acceptance, awareness, collaboration, professional development, support and equal treatment are our primary values.

By promoting these values, we ensure each Realtor® member is able to better serve their clients and community. Our diverse membership is made up of professionals from different backgrounds, identities, opinions, perspectives, races, and religions. Together, these unique characteristics make us stronger and are reflective of the community we represent.

CTAR fully embraces members from all walks of life—in acceptance of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, national origin, socioeconomic status, political affiliation or any other qualities by which we may define ourselves.

On December 7,
all CTAR members
will receive a survey
designed to help us
better understand
our members and their experiences with the Association and in our local real estate industry.

Your response to this survey is crucial to help us provide you with the best member experience possible.

Responses are completely
anonymous

So please be completely
honest

together

we will build a stronger, more equitable Association where every member knows they have a seat at the table and that their voice will be heard!

On December 7, make sure YOUR voice is heard!
